Doors at the Sheraton inn opened in only one direction — out — as the hostelry was closed down today by the U.S. referee in bankruptcy. Helen Musch, a maid, left the lobby with a plant. Service trucks were parked in front of the main entrance and the official notice showed the inn is now in court custody.

The east area rapist attacked his 19th victim this morning after awakening a Glenbrook area couple and holding them at gunpoint while he tied them up and covered their heads with blankets, police said.

The rapist, who pried open a sliding glass door to enter the family's home, didn't awaken two young children who slept through the ordeal, police said.

The rapist, armed with a large caliber pistol, spent more than two hours in the house, terrorizing and
