East Area Rapist Attacks Girl, 13

The East Area rapist broke into a Sacramento condominium early today, raping a 13-year-old girl after he awakened and tied up her mother.

The 27th attack in 17 months occurred on La Riviera Drive near Watt Avenue in the College Greens section of the city about 3 a.m., said sheriff's Chief Deputy Fred Reese.

The rapist spent about two hours in the home, raping the girl, then fondling her as she sat tied in a chair.

He entered the condominium by forcing open a sliding glass door, Reese said.

Once inside, the rapist awakened the mother, tied her in her bed, placed china on her back and said if he heard the dishes rattle, he would cut off the daughter's fingers, police said. The rapist then led the 13-year-old into another room and attacked her.

After the ski-masked, armed man left the home, the girl and the woman screamed until neighbors heard them. A neighbor then followed the screams into the home and untied the two victims. She was the youngest victim in the terrifying series of attacks, police said. In his last 10 rapes, he has victimized sleeping couples in cases where he has tied the men in bed, then led the women to other parts of the homes for sexual assaults.

The East Area rapist last struck Oct. 29 north of Whitney Avenue.

After this morning's attack was reported about 5 a.m., sheriff's deputies took into custody a possible suspect in an El Camino Avenue restaurant. The man was questioned, taken to the scene of the rape and held in custody about two hours before he was released.
