everyone else has in the Air Force." She observed that things today are pretty much the way things have always been. "If you like your job, you can make it worthwhile." When Sgt. Strader was first assigned to the old Army Air Force women had to volunteer for overseas duty. Today they're assigned overseas as a matter of course.

Overall, the changes concerning women "probably are a good thing," she said.

The sergeant served two years on active duty with the Pacific Overseas Air Technical Service Command at Alameda during World War II. Then came 14 years of reserve duty. She and her unit were called to active duty in 1962 during the Cuban missile crisis when she was 56. By being recalled she became eligible to serve past the normal retirement age.

East Area Rapist In San Ramon?

Sacramento County sheriff's detectives are awaiting reports on a rape early last Saturday by a masked man in San Ramon. Contra Costa County should be attributed to Sacramento's East Area rapist.

William Miller, assistant to the sheriff, said "It appears" the assault may have been the 40th committed by the man whose first 21 rapes, a series which began in June 1976, were in Sacramento's East Area.
